

Participant Application
pianoSonoma Rosé at Sonoma State University \(three days\)
Thursday, July 14 – Saturday, July 16, 2022

pianoSonoma is excited to launch a new program at Sonoma State University for adult music-lovers of all backgrounds. Perform in or observe daily performance classes, learn from world-class Artists in Residence in creative group classes, and attend a private performance by our Artists. We welcome observers, all instruments, and pre-formed chamber groups. All events take place at the Green Music Center, which includes the beautiful Schroeder Hall.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Email address: _____

Instrument: _____

Do you wish to play chamber music or in a duo at the festival? Y/N

If so, do you have a pre-formed chamber group or duo? Y/N

Please list the names of people and their instruments in your pre-formed group or duo on another page.

Please submit a short biography describing your musical background, including your current teacher if you have one.

Application deadline: April 15, 2022

Tuition (please circle the program in which you wish to enroll):

Performer: $500

Observer: $250

I affirm that all the information I submit is complete and accurate.

APPLICANT'S SIGNATURE:

Signature

Date

Please send application form and a $25 application fee to:

Jessica Chow Shinn, Artistic Director
pianoSonoma Music Festival
336 Lake Ave
Newton, MA 02461

or email them to: jessica@pianosonoma.org. We also accept Zelle payments and AppleCash.